Hi

I am a casual sailer, paddler, and sail board user. Hearing about the sea planes I was excited for Canberra. However I expected that the strip would be at the Kingston end or at the feet of the Anzac parade. Not in the middle of watersport central. I sail in the proposed area and often it's full of people.

It would be great to have the sea planes but must be at the Kingston end. They will love to watch them come and go.

I would have suggested at the GG but wrong for prevailing winds. Mostly motor boats at Kingston they can get out of the way perhaps.

The proposed area will bugger the sailing or kill someone. Please don't put it there.

Regards
Robert Cameron
