PART 2 NATIONAL CAPITAL PLAN AMENDMENT 54

Parliamentary Zone (Section 55 Parkes)

The National Capital Plan is amended by:

- a) Deleting the eighth paragraph under “Land Use and Development” in Appendix T6: Master Plan for the Parliamentary Zone which says:

“The site to the west of the Land Axis and north of Enid Lyons Street (currently an informal car park) is the highest profile remaining site available for a new building in the place of the people. The site should be reserved for a significant national building, such as a National Theatre and Concert Hall”.

and replacing it with the following words:

“The site to the west of the Land Axis and north of Enid Lyons Street (currently an informal car park) is a high profile site. The site should be reserved for a significant national building and/or a significant national place of special status and interest”.
